Indiana State USBC Tournaments

The State tournament bowlers are ready to bowl. It has been very exciting as the first tournaments conducted this fall have shown much anticipation and participation. Our bowlers are ready and excited to bowl as our tournaments begin. We are expecting that increased participation to continue into our Open, Women's, Youth, Masters and Queen Championships.

In this Newsletter—

Indiana Scratch Classic Tournament

The Indiana Scratch Tournament was held on November 13-14 at Mike Aulby's Arrowhead Bowl in Lafayette. As with all of the 2021-22 Indiana State tournaments finalized so far this season, this prestigious scratch tournament also had an increase of entries. There were 173 total entries from 125 people as compared to 148 in 2020 and 162 in 2019.

Winners were Tournament Champion EJ Tackett of Bluffton; 2nd--Bailey Mavrick, Peru; 3rd--Kevin McCune, Munster; and 4th--Jean Perez, Greenwood. Additional information can be found at IndianaStateUSBC.org. Visit the ISC home page here or by using your Smartphone with the code to the right.

Hall of Fame Committee

The Indiana State Hall of Fame Committee met November 20 to determine qualifying nominees for the 2022 ballot. Nominations must have been received by October 1, 2021, to have been considered for the 2022 induction.

Association Manager Brian Nunning will be sending ballots (one each) to all local associations, all Hall of Fame Members with an up-to-date postal address on file with the IS USBC Office, and to the current State Board Members.
