August 2022

Welcome to the new season!

With the new 2022-2023 season beginning, the Indiana State USBC Board of Directors hopes that you have enjoyed your summer with the summer leagues, striking the ball on the golf course, camping, spending time with your family, and keeping cool in this heat!

Association Managers... Please be sure to update your WinLabs with new officers and information changes. This is the information used by the Indiana State Office to communicate important information.

Thank you AJ for the years of leadership!

Former President Alice J. (AJ) Hacker opted to step away from her bowling position and responsibilities to relax and enjoy life on the home front. You will be missed as well as your leadership and bowling knowledge. Relax and enjoy life!

Welcome President Kendall!

We now welcome William Kendall, Sr., as President of the Indiana State USBC Board of Directors. Bill has worked through the chairs as he learned all the facets of the events/services being offered by our Indiana State USBC, and he is excited to take on his new role as our elected president. Bill has retired from his work as a Shift Supervisor at the Dept. of Corrections, and is a member of the Anderson USBC. We look forward to working with President Kendall this 2022-23 bowling season! Positions Open on the Indiana State Board

The Indiana State USBC has openings for District 1 Director and for the North West Regional Director. The application with detailed information of responsibilities and expectations are outlined here.

Indiana State Jamboree

The Indiana State Jamboree has been scheduled for October 14-16, 2022, in District 1, which is Brandywine USBC, Franklin USBC, Gr Hamilton USBC, Indy USBC, and Lebanon USBC. The Wyndham Indianapolis West, 2544 Executive Dr., Indianapolis, will be the hosting hotel with Royal Pin Expo as the hosting center for the Blind-Draw Doubles. The Shiners Live Band will provide the entertainment Saturday evening from 7-11 pm with music ranging from the 60-70's to country rock.

Room Group Rates and password for the blocked rooms reservations for Jamboree participants should be available after August 18. They will be posted online on the Jamboree link.

Mr. Mike Larsen, USBC Senior Director Associations and Membership Operations, will be the Keynote Speaker for the 2022 Jamboree. A USBC BVL Representative will also be attending this year's activities.

Additional detailed information will become available very soon and will be sent via postal mail to the local association managers, email to local presidents and association managers, and will be posted on the State website, IndianaStateUSBC.org.

Do you want to be included in the Jamboree Book? Great way to advertise a planned event in your district or local association and to support the State Jamboree. Ad costs are $25 for ¼ page, $50 for ½ page, and $75 for a full-page ad. Get your ad(s) to Dee Johnson, 3616 Candy Lane, Kokomo 46902-4416 or via email to--

dee.johnson@IndianaStateUSBC.org

by September 23—that is not very far away!

If you do not have an ad put together or no one to do it, call or send Dee your information and she will try to get it for you if it's sent in a timely manner so that you can approve it before publishing.

To donate a basket to the Jamboree, please contact Corky Koch to let him know who it will be from and how many you or your district will be donating.

USBC News

- Effective August 1—National Membership fees are now $15.
- USBC launched its Tiered Center Certification. USBC will go into a center, certify the lanes for three years with a $30 fee ($10 per year) for each lane.

New with Indiana State USBC

New District 3 Director—Donna Dennie

Donna Dennie of Warsaw is new to the Indiana State USBC Board of Directors, but she is not a stranger to Board responsibilities. She served on the WBA Board for several years and has served on numerous of its State Committees.

Changes with State Tournaments Leadership

New... Tournament Manager for the Indiana State Mixed Championship is Lynda Isaacs, 1st Vice President of the Indiana State USBC.

Lynda is also the new Tournament Manager for the Indiana State Luise Lesser Memorial Scholarship Tournament being held this season on August 21.

For the Open Championship Tournament, Rick Schultz will return to train Charles “Chip” Rott as the Tournament Manager.

Chip is the Indiana State District 7 Director, lives in Terre Haute, and works as Station Manager for FedEx. He has been on the Indy USBC Board of Directors from 2012-2018 and has been the Indy Open Tournament Director since 2014 to present.

Angie Kendall will remain as the Assistant Tournament Manager.

Calendar

The State 2022-23 Calendar of Events is available online. Please use this calendar when planning your events. If you plan your events on an already scheduled event, you take the chance of your members not participating in yours or not being represented by your local association at the State events. Please try to plan accordingly.
