Dear Mr. Cappa,

Enclosed are the nomination forms for the Indiana State USBC BA Hall of Fame for John (Johnny) Murphy. I have accumulated information about his accomplishments from the following sources:
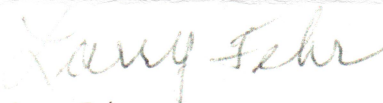

- Web sites of the Indianapolis and Indiana USBC which list prior tournament winners
- Resume on file for the Greater Indianapolis BA Hall of Fame
- Team Championships of my father (Johnny Fehr) which listed team members

I believe his accomplishments more than meet the requirements to be considered in the performance category, as he has one state title and over ten years of participation in Indiana State Tournaments. He also has an ABC All Events title to his credit.

I believe I can find a picture of him and I will provide it to you if he is elected. Please let me know if you have any questions or need further information to make the nomination complete. Also, if you need verification of any of the data I would be happy to provide you with anything I have.

Thank you for your consideration of Johnny for this honor.

Very truly yours,

Larry Fehr

Summary of Achievements

The first record of his bowling accomplishments was in the 1936 season when he won the Indianapolis city team Championship, the Elk's National Team and Singles Championships and the ABC All-Events title. During his career he won numerous city, state, and national tournaments. He had two sanctioned "300" games. Along with Johnny Fehr, Don Johnson, Fonnie Snyder and Larry Fox (who were inducted into the Indiana State Hall of Fame in 2013, 2014, 2017, and 1982 respectively), he was a member of one of the strongest teams in Indianapolis for many years. Their teams accounted for many of his tournament championships.

His major accomplishments include:

-2 sanctioned perfect"300" games

-6 city tournament titles

-1 state tournament title

-ABC All Events Title in 1936

-4 other national tournament titles

-Induction into the Greater Indianapolis Bowling Hall of Fame in 1971

Note: Tommy Lee Baxter reviewed yearbooks to determine that Johnny Murphy had over 10 years participation in the Indiana State Tournament.
