

Join THE INDIANA STATE 500 CLUB

The Indiana State 500 Club was started decades ago to celebrate and bring together women bowlers. To be eligible to become a member of the Indiana State 500 Club, you need to be a USBC Certified bowler in good standings with the USBC and Indiana State USBC and have rolled a scratch 500 series in a sanctioned league or tournament.

Membership fees are a one-time fee of $5.00. This shall entitle the member to a membership card & Indiana State 500 Club tac pin. Membership will be automatically terminated if membership with USBC is suspended or terminated.

The Indiana State 500 Club will have 2 tournaments per year.

Indiana State 500 Club Singles Tournament will be held during the Indiana Women's Championship and will be held as a side tournament to this event. This event is a Walk-In event using the scores bowled in the Indiana Women's Championship.

Indiana State 500 Club Trios Tournament will be held in October of each year with the Annual meeting occurring prior to the tournament event. This tournament is held at different facilities around the state of Indiana. Watch for details each year.
